YAMANO MAKER (JPN) raced behind the quick pacesetter through early stages, remained in range around the turn then steadily weakened through the lane. QUINN MURPHY was allowed to settle out of the gate and saved ground around the first turn, nicely rated while never too far off the pace through the backstretch, raced behind a pack of pursuers around the rail on the far turn, picked up the pace past the pace past the quarter pole hen tipped out three wide for the drive, roused forward to briefly duel with MILA'S GOLD then gained the advantage near mid-stretch and finished clear. MILA'S GOLD raced in close contention and tracked the pacesetter positioned three wide through early stages, quickened strides to challenge LUCKY ROAD for the lead near the quarter pole, dug in and held a slim lead at the eighth pole then got overhauled when the winner kicked by. G'S DEADLINE was forwardly placed while tucked in along the rail around the first turn, stalked through the backstretch then angled out turning for home, sustained a four wide bid with response and just missed gathering place. LUCKY ROAD set the pace through the backstretch then vied for the lead with MIL'S GOLD at the quarter pole, fought back in the upper stretch then gave way in the final furlong. LIL ASHLEY B. was unhurried and raced in the back, swung out six wide into the lane and failed to move on. MARRAZANO rated not too far off the pace through early stages, launched a three wide bid midway around the far turn then got carried out five wide entering the lane, quickly angled in but had no late kick. THE RIDER OF MARRAZANO LODGED CLAIM OF FOUL AGAINST G'S DEADLINE FOR INTERFERENCE AT THE HEAD OF THE LANE, AFTER REVIEW STEWARDS TOOK NO ACTION
