Footnotes

MY KIKI had speed three wide then vied between rivals under rating mid turn, was roused clear approaching the quarter pole, widened a bit near mid stretch, kept on on under left handed asks inside the sixteenth pole then lasted over a charging BE A BANDIT. BE A BANDIT , urged in the clear and off of a contested early pace, swung five wide into the lane, leveled off when switching over to her correct lead near the sixteenth pole, closed gamely and simply ran out of ground. PEACEFUL VISION forced the pace between rivals into the turn, chased past the five sixteenths, shifted in and kept on with some interest. LAURIEANN bobbled at the break, was hustled up inside soon after to contest the p[ace, eased back off the leaders mid turn, came out for room bothering foes entering the lane, chased and faded. BLONDIE LOX BABE was shuffled back near the five and a half furlong marker, saved ground into the stretch and lacked a bid. PRINCESS TRINA flashed speed, angled out into the turn, moved up four wide nearing the quarter pole, was carried out by YOUNMEHONEYBUNNY after that one was floated out by LAURIEANN and weakened. YOUNMEHONEYBUNNY was rated back from between rivals early, bid four deep into the turn, pressed three wide mid turn, was carried out some by LAURIEANN soon into the stretch and gave way. Following an objection by the rider of PRINCESS TRINA against LAURIEANN, LAURIEANN was disqualified from fourth and placed sixth for causing interference entering the stretch.

Footnotes
SWEET CHABLIS attended the pace between rivals, poked a head in front five furlongs out, was nicely rated leaving the far turn, turned away a rail challenge from LAST OF THE NILE near the five sixteenths, spurted clear soon after, widened under some asking in mid stretch then was steadily hand ridden to prove clearly best. LAST OF THE NILE had speed between foes, prompted towards the inside through the backstretch, challenged along the rail mid way on the final turn, came out for the drive and kept on willingly. MISS ST. CLAIRE vied inside rivals early then was rated back, edged up between runners near the five eighths, pursued four wide nearing the lane and faded. CALIFORNIA BELLE lunged at the break then steadied, recovered and moved up to stalk, came five wide for the drive and weakened. ALABAMA QUEEN saved ground and failed to respond. SHE'SMYSMOKESHOW , four wide with the early pace, chased through the backstretch and tired. TAKING PICTURES , four wide, tired.

Footnotes

PAC THE PULPIT settled in the clear and off of a contested early pace, gathered momentum three wide mid turn, angled five wide into the stretch, sustained under left handed encouragement, wrested command from MULETRAIN in deep stretch and edged clear at the wire. MULETRAIN , four wide, gained ground past the five sixteenths, bid to engage in upper stretch, gained a slim lead past the furlong grounds, kept on gamely but could not hold off the winner's charge. ADMIRAL AFLEET checked at the break, moved up under a ride and well removed from the rail mid turn, circled six wide into the stretch and rallied. RUNAWAY JIM stalked the pace, moved through along the rail to challenge near the quarter pole, battled past mid stretch and weakened late. HALF CRAZY , vied five wide early on outside a rival, shifted in some and gained command past the three eighths, cleared briefly then was taken on from the inside nearing the stretch, dueled and maintained a short lead between runners in mid stretch, kept on to the sixteenth pole and faded. ONE MORE SLEEP chased the pace, angled in for the drive and weakened. D'FESTIVE CAT , four to seven wide, was not a factor. ST JOE lacked speed, angled out mid turn and was not a threat. WAR KING sped to the early lead while well off the rail, was joined from the outside and dueled from the five eighths into the turn, dropped in a bit then ceded the advantage near the three eighths, pursued to upper stretch and tired. DIGNIFIED N KRAFTY was steadied near the half mile marker and failed to menace. AMANDAS NEW MAN , towards the inside, faltered around the turn, was eased late and walked off.
