SEVILLE BARBER showed the way until heading down the hill for the final time and heading to the head of the stretch, dueled briefly but failed to perservere, yet was second best here. BIG CITY DREAMER settled mid pack, had mild rally heading to the last then flattened out. ALWAYS COOL settled towards the back, failed to gain ground and was no threat here. CAINUOTHETWIST trailed the field.

GOING COUNTRY (IRE) drafted the pace for the first mile and a half, got in gear after the second last for the long run down the the hill heading for the home turn, dueled with the pace setter at that point, had a slight advantage jumping the last and prevailed at the wire. BICKLEY took command from the start, still had a clear advantage at the second last then was challenged by the stalker heading down the hill for the final time, dueled with that rival all the way home and gave way in the final strides. BRIGHT EYED EAGLE (IRE) settled towards the back, rallied down the hill for the final time to be right there jumping the last but was out run to the wire. PROJECT TWO (IRE) galloped along in the back of the field, but was never out of contention, rallied on the home turn, then flattlened out. TOM struggled throughout the race, kept losing ground and lost touch with the field but managed to finish.

Footnotes

JUMP SHIP was in no hurry during the early going, quietly gained ground on the backside for the final time, came with a rush going down the hill after the second last for the long run to the last, collared the leader on the home turn and dueled briefly to gain command going to the last, then opened up a wide margin at the wire. TWENTY YEARS ON (GB) set the pace for the first mile and a half, then was challanged by hard charging JUMP SHIP going down the hill and into the final bend, dueled briefly with that rival but was no match for the winner. DON'T SHOUT (IRE) settled mid pack, rallied after the second last to get in the mix heading for the last then weakened after the last fence. PEAT MOSS (IRE) was close up most of the way then started to weaken going up the hill heading for the final turn, but hung on to finish fourth. SHAKA settled mid pack and was never far out of it, rallied down the hill after the second last to be close heading into the home turn then flattened out. FIGHTINIRISHTABIT was in contention for the first mile and a half, but could not gain further ground during the late going. THREE O ONE was struggling in the back of the pack, continued to lose ground and was eased going down the hill for he final time and was pulled up before the last and walked off. CRITICIZE raced mid pack started to weaken during the long run after the second last and was pulled up before the last and walked off.
