VEIL forced the pace briefly then stalked, bid at the top of the stretch, drove clear but was passed near the 70 yard pole. PRINCESS FABIANA, at the rear early, closed three-wide on the turn, rallied, but evened out in deep stretch. CRY UNCLE settled off the pace, was hustled two and three-wide on the turn, tipped out at the top of the stretch then rallied mildly. FINDING PERFECTION raced in mid pack early, saved ground on the turn, chased into the stretch but never reached contention. SUBZERO PLUS set a pressured pace, shook clear near mid turn, was engaged at the top of the stretch, yielded, but chased to no avail. MACHO BOURBON broke outward, forced the pace, dropped back late turn and lacked a rally.

PIQUET stalked the early duelers while three wide down the backside, advanced outside the pace victor late on the turn, engaged that one in upper stretch and drove by to a clear lead by the eighth pole, then needed the wire late. MODUS OPERANDI leapt up at the start, and was off the pace, moved up mid backstretch into range while along the inside into the turn, angled out by the quarter pole and had dead aim on the two leaders in upper stretch, gaining late on the winner to make it interesting. NOT ORBINARY began sluggishly and trailed early, was ridden along from mid backstretch and two to four wide on the turn but was still near the rear turning for home, rallied in the five path in upper stretch and closed well, making up good ground in the final sixteenth. IT'SNICETOBENICE along the rail and off the pace early, closed up the inside on the bend, came out in upper stretch to bypass a tiring foe and bested the rest without threatening. POWER HOUSE settled in mid pack while outside, came two to four wide into range outside the place finisher on the turn and stayed close until losing ground in the final eighth. WESTLODGE INTRIGUE broke on top and was under restraint while sitting outside a pace rival, cleared off mid turn but the winner was on her quickly, staying game until the eighth pole when tiring and dropping back. LIL'S TURN sat along the rail and off the pace down the backstretch, rallied inside on the turn and down the lane, finding her best stride in the late going. CAPE MIST trailed throughout, came two to three wide on the turn and was able to pass a tired foe late. STORMY SUMMER rushed up inside early to duel the leader, battled on to midway on the turn but began to leak oil and fell back down the lane.

VICTOR'S DESTINY rushed up inside a rival to duel for the lead in the early going, traded punches with that one around the turn, joined three wide by the eventual place finisher late turn, battled with that one down the lane and looked beaten at the sixteenth pole but re-rallied in the final forty yards, gutting out a well deserved victory. WHISKEY VICTOR stalked the early duelers three wide, joined to make it three in a line late turn, headed the winner in mid stretch and appeared on his way to the winner's circle only to be outgamed in the final stages. HARDY CANDY off the pace early, weaved his way through rivals on the turn and down the lane, closing good ground late to get close to the top pair in the final yards. GIANT ATTRACTION shot up inside behind the top trio early on the turn, angled out to take his shot turning for home and looked dangerous but stalled in the final sixteenth, settling for a minor award. VICTOR'S WAY battled outside the winner early, was between the top two finishers until upper stretch, but faded in the final sixteenth. ABSOLUTION chased the leaders along the inside, rallied in upper stretch but failed to sustain his move in the final sixteenth. MACHO T was five wide chasing the leaders down the backside, still five and six wide on the turn and could not muster a challenge. SANDRETTI was three to four wide chasing between rivals down the backside and around the turn, stalling in upper stretch and falling back. LOOKOUT LOUIE chased the leaders between rivals in the three path, falling back from midway on the turn to the wire. SEAMUS chased four wide between rivals into the turn when seemingly in tight, checking out to last and staying there for the duration.
