Footnotes

TRIP CANDY unhurried in the early part, raced wide around both turns, took command around the final turn, was going away and won under steady urging. OVERLYAPPEALING lacked early speed, moved up six wide around the final turn, made a wide gain, proved no match for the winner, but was a clear second. DYNA GHOST raced in the back of the field in the early going, made a late gain and was just up for the show. PROPER CROSS pressed the pace, steadied around the second turn to avoid rival being pulled up, rallied down the home stretch and weakened late. I'LL RAISE YOU bobbled at the start, quickly moved up to the middle of the pack, challenged for the lead before fading. SANCTITY dueled for the early lead and was finished early. A. P.'S PRINCE always raced in the back and was eased to the wire, walked off. COSTA ALOT pressed the early pace, checked around the second turn, blocked, lacked running room while racing on the rail, took up and was eased to the wire, walked off. WRISTLET challenged for the early lead, saved ground, pulled up around the second turn and was vanned off.
