Footnotes

RAKASA rushed up the fence to maintain rail control and get the lead, shook off her pace rival late on the turn and had a clear advantage in upper stretch, holding on to her diminishing lead in the final stages. OL' BLONDIE broke out and brushed the gate at the start and trailed the field, well off the pace before commencing a three to four wide run on the turn, came widest around rivals down the lane with an excellent rush to grab the place spot late. RAVEN ECHO went to her nose at the start, recovered quickly to chase outside a rival behind the duo in front, tipped off two to three wide turning for home to loom outside that front pair, gamely beating the rival she raced alongside the entire trip for the show at the wire. KNOW HOW (GB) chased along the rail behind the leading pair, a very nice inside trip but could not kick on down the lane and was outgamed for show by the rival she raced inside of all the way. GOLD FORESTER settled three wide off the pace early, roused around the turn in the two path and closed mildly down the lane to beat the rest, inching up in the final sixteenth. CORA chased along the inside, dropped back around the turn and rallied along the inside down the lane without threatening. NO MORE FENCES settled off the pace, came up along the fence on the turn and angled out in upper stretch, finding her best stride late while outside of rivals. SILENZIO had an awkward beginning, sat in midpack in the two path, over to the rail on the turn and rallied mildly in upper stretch before levelling off in the final furlong. WICKED MIAH off the pace and three to four wide outside the place finisher on the turn, no rally forthcoming. PESARO stalked and pressed the winner throughout, fell back mid turn but took another shot nearing the turn for home, tiring in the final furlong. MI TORMENTA trailed by a good margin down the backside, the rider having some difficulty along the rail and never able to mount a charge.

Footnotes

BURNING MAN pinched back at the start and was off the pace on the first turn, commenced a three wide run up the backstretch to get into position, continued to advance four to five wide on the far turn and fanned out to the six path turning for home, kept coming outside down the lane and after a slight brush with the place finisher in midstretch got the lead at the sixteenth pole, in hand the final two strides. VELOCE chased the top pair outside a rival, moved up two to three wide inside the winner on the far turn and fanned out into the five path turning for home, outkicked by that rival but holding on to the place spot late. GIANT CRITIC chased in midpack along the rail, dropped back on the far turn but was re-energized down the lane and rallied inside the top pair outside the tiring pacesetters, game for the show. LION KINGDOM trailed all the way until tipping out in upper stretch and finishing with a strong, eye catching late rally but running out of real estate up behind the leaders. LUCAS N' LORI was bumped at the start and off the pace, in the two and three path on the turns but could not muster a rally of any kind. MATINEE broke in and bumped a rival at the start, took the lead quickly but was stalked and pressed by a rival throughout, kept going until the eighth pole when headed by the top pair, giving ground from there to the wire. FINAL STRIKE stalked the leader throughout, bid for the front midway and late on the far turn but was repulsed by the leader, falling back in the final furlong. DETROIT STEEL (IRE) broke out at the start, settled in chasing the leaders along the fence, asked for run midway on the turn but did not respond.

POST TO POST settled off the pace, chased three and four-wide on the far turn, rallied outside and was up just in time. STORMY SUMMER led into the first turn, set a reserved pace from the rail, quickened on the first turn, was all out in the stretch but was caught on the wire. CRUMLIN TIME stalked the pace, came four then three-wide through both turns, bid approaching the top of the stretch, was quickly headed but rallied smartly and just missed. CRUMLIN QUEEN stalked the pace from the rail, was hustled into the stretch and chased gamely to the end. EXPRESS BANKING pressed the pace, lapped onto the leader on the far turn, challenged in earnest approaching the stretch but was headed and gave way after a brief chase. DESERT POEM settled off the pace, came along the rail and two-wide through the far turn, chased into the stretch but never reached contention. FINEST JEWEL was steadied at the break and settled in mid pack, chased two-wide into the stretch but evened out in the final 16th. SOTHATSTHEWAYITIS settled off the pace, was hustled two and three-wide on the far turn but lacked a closing response.
