WET PAINT was reserved two wide early, then was ridden along by the three eighths marker while trailing, moved out and then swung out five wide leaving the bend and had a belated rally to gain the show award. QUEEN OF MISSOULA was bumped slightly at the break, then settled along the rail, saved ground on the turn and was coaxed along by the five sixteenths and cut the corner leaving the turn but lacked the needed winning bid. MORNING MATCHA was reserved three wide into the first turn, then advanced outside of horses on the turn and came four wide off the bend but lacked a rally. ABUNDANCIA set the pace while clear and getting over to the inside, then was headed by the three eights and gave way. MALIBU BEAUTY broke outwardly at the start bumping HONOR D LADY, then stalked the pace setter two wide, made a bid between rivals by the three eights marker and then then tired.
