Footnotes

PERFECT PLAY got over to the inside from his outside post into the first turn but had only two rivals beaten, stayed inside down the backside to get into range on the far turn, was run into the back of a stopping foe and steadied back at the quarter pole, regrouped and zipped up the fence to bid turning for home, had the lead quickly and opened up down the lane. MY REDEMPTION was bumped by a rival at the start and settled off the pace along the inside, followed the winner on the far turn and into the stretch but was no match for that one's kick, up the fence for the place spot at the sixteenth pole and driven hard to hold that spot. CAM WOOLLEY sat on the rail in midpack, angled out two to three wide between rivals on the far turn and out in the five path turning for home, closing gradually down the lane while remaining on his left lead to get the show spot. AUKSINE KULKA bumped a rival at the start and chased in the two path early, advanced to tackle the pace survivor on the far turn and had the lead turning for home but the winner zoomed by to his inside soon after and he lost positions in the final sixteenth. BROKE AN BROKEN settled in midpack but dropped back to off the pace by early on the far turn, re-rallied along the rail to behind a wall of runners in midstretch, yanked out to the outside of that group and went by them in the six path but was no threat to the top four. HAYROLL off the pace and two to three wide early, circled the field three to five wide on the far turn and out in the eight path turning for home, evening out in the final sixteenth. MORE HARDER chased the two early leaders along the inside, began to lose ground midway on the far turn and did not recover. TIMMINS on hold and three wide near the back on the first turn, got inside late on the backside and angled out three wide at the quarter pole but his rally stalled in the final furlong. DONTCALLMESWEETY began awkwardly but recovered quickly to set a fast pace while being pressed by a rival, shook that one off late backstretch but was immediately challenged by another foe, headed by that one late on the far turn and called it a day from that point. CALM DOWN was four wide and off the pace early, advanced three to four wide into range on the far turn and out in the six path turning for home, dropping back in the final furlong. INNOCENT MOVES hustled for the early lead and dueled with a rival to his inside through fast fractions, began to leak oil into the far turn and backed through them. WALSINGHAM chased three wide on the first turn, began to drop back late backstretch and retreated.

STRIKER was in the mix early before dropping back to chase along the inside, angled out late on the turn, bid turning for home and got the front at the eighth pole, switching leads back and forth and laying in greenly down the lane but powering away in the final sixteenth despite those antics. GHOSTLINER won the break despite bearing out, led and maintained a short lead with stalkers to his inside and out, was collared by the winner at the eighth pole, staying on to be a clear second best. BUCK MOON hit the gate at the start and was off the pace along the inside, rode the rail throughout and was inching up late without threatening the top pair. WOOD BE WILD brushed with a rival at the start but quickly came up inside the leader and stalked that one from the rail, stayed game to the eighth pole but faded from there. OLD BLUE CLIFF broke in and brushed with a rival at the start, in midpack and between runners three to two wide on the turn and ran evenly down the stretch after a mild rally to midstretch. AZZURRO was taken back out of the early scramble for the front, advanced four to five wide on the turn and out in the six path turning for home but could not get into contention. SASKATCHEWAN was herded when a rival crowded him at the start, dropped back to trail the field entering the turn and passed a few stragglers down the lane along the inside. NIAGARA SKYLINE was four wide the entire trip, loomed outside when rallying on the turn but lugged in upper stretch and retreated from that point. JACKIE'S PRIDE was bumped by a rival at the start, in the mix three wide for the early lead, stayed in range until upper stretch but was out of run at that point.

KNOPFLER set a pressured pace, dueled on the backstretch, was headed entering the far turn and chased to the end. DOUBLE THE HEART stalked the pace, was hustled from the rail to three-wide on the far turn but lacked a closing response. SWEEPIN HARD bobbed at the outset and settled in mid pack, was hustled three to five-wide on the far turn then evened out in the late stages.
