JACKMAN'S RIDE drifted out after the start, then set the pace from the inside, was under pressure by an outer rival leaving the turn, shook clear and held sway down the lane. ATRAS was nicely rated outside of rivals and while three wide, then dug in gamely at the top of the stretch to gain second position but could not catch the leader in the end. AVAILABLE STAR was allowed to settle along the inside, then split rivals at the top of the stretch and found the best stride to close well for the show prize. PRINCE LANCELOT (GB) was impeded at the start, was unhurried early before urging steadily on the turn, rallied in the stretch and was closing well in the end. TEAM LEADER broke outwardly and brushed rival, then was bumped by the same rival shortly after, raced mid pack from the inside, rallied on the turn and came up evenly in the stretch. BRUCELEA was allowed to settle while two wide, then came out six to seven wide leaving the bend, bid in the stretch and came up empty. BRAHMS BOY chased the pace while two wide at an even pace throughout, bid in the upper stretch but did not spark in the end. STRAIGHT LUCK pressed the pace while in a steady drive into the turn, attempted to gain the lead while in a strong bid at the quarter pole, couldn't over power the pace setter and gave way in the stretch. SATURDAY'S GOLD was bumped by an outer shortly after the start, then chased the pace from the inside, was in a strong drive throughout the turn before giving way in the stretch. MY GOLDEN M was brushed at the start, then drifted inward and bumped inner rival, raced in the middle of the pack while two wide and lacked rallying in the stretch.

COUSIN LARRY saved ground while racing well behind the field down the backstretch, then bid on the turn, angled out to the five path and closed well for the show prize. BALSA set the pace from the inside, cleared the turn while being pursued by eager rivals, then was overpowered mid stretch and gave way in the end. LARRY'S LEGEND stalked the pace white two wide, was in steady drive throughout the turn, then menaced at the top of the stretch and did not fire in the lane. BOUGIE JOE pursued the pace while racing from the three path closely behind the leader, then bid on the turn while losing some ground and did not spark in the stretch. BLING MOUNTAIN was out run and made no impact in the end.
