Footnotes

SHOW SLIDING HOME raced close up in the three path, chased and caught the leader past mid turn and was clear at the three sixteenths. KING CORN was bumped by a foe at the start, moved outside early, gained on the leader around the turn, loomed large at rhe top of the stretch but could not keep pace with the winner and nearly lost the place to a fast closer. OFTEN ENOUGH bumped a horse at the start, waited, came widest into the stretch, closed best and just missed grabbing second. OL' L B had an awkward start, prompted the leader from inside, lacked a rally on the turn, shifted out for the stretch run and passed a fader late. REBEL'S REVENGE broke sharply, led to the quarter pole under some pressure, then faded while inside down the lane.

IT'S GAME TIME raced near the back, moved outside for room in late backstretch, took the four path on the far turn and started to advance at the quarter pole, then rolled past the leaders at tthe eighth pole for the win. SWING WEST attended the pace, pressed the early leader at the top of the turn, fought for position down the lane but was no match for the winner while holding second. CHILI NELSON was early inside speed, got pressured at the top of the turn and was battling a foe down the lane as both were passed by a clearing off winner, and then settled for show. SKATINGONTINICE prompted the lead outside, backed off on the turn, but had enough to hold fourth down the lane. RUSSIAN TO TAPIT was bumped at the start and improved position while no menace. BOURBON SHOTTE was unhurried, came widest into the stretch and improved position. PRIME TIME was mid pack and backed up on the far turn. DARBY DART was mid pack and backed up on the far turn.
