TOMASINO bothered at the start by outside rival, had to stalk pace two wide after troubled start, continued two wide on the turn, entered stretch widest, and rallied up for third. CANNES lacked speed and trailed on the backstretch, continued along the rail on the turn, entered stretch along the rail and had a belated rally along the rail. MYSTIC GREY contested pace early on the backstretch, had to settle for a chasing two wide trip on the turn, entered stretch in range and gave way in the final sixteenth. SOUL OWNER came away ok at the start, hustled for speed exiting the chute, contested pace three wide, and cleared heading into the turn, opened up on the turn and into the stretch clear, started to shorten stride in upper stretch and tired badly inside the final sixteenth.
