THREE O ONE assumed command from the start, jumping well on the front end and wasn't really challenged until coming out of the home turn heading towards the last, jumped the last with the advantage and held of a hard charging rival at the wire. MAKE A STAND was always close to the leaders, picked up a spot going down the backside for the final fime to stalk the leader on the home turn, was in striking distance jumping the last and was gaining ground through the stretch but just missed at the wire. HOMERHAYES was in no hurry during the early going, closed the gap after the third last jump, rallied on the home bend then flattened out. THE KID ROCKS stalked the pace for the first mile and a half, then gave way to several rivals on the backside for the final time and raced evenly from the home turn. TWENTYONEGUNS raced towards the back and never could gain any ground on the field. WHERE'S OLIVER was in contention until the third last then stopped. BRAVE DEACON was in contention when he fell at the last jump and walked off.
