Footnotes

THE FEATURE tracked from midpack two wide and between horses under a tight hold, commenced a rally aiming between the leaders in upper stretch, squeezed through a narrow gap between the leaders approaching the sixteenth pole, bumped those foes in the process, but surged through and cleared in the late stages. TREASURY prompted the pace setter two wide and between horses, vied for the lead while drifting to the four path turning for home, shifted back in narrowing the gap between him and his inner vying counterpart, then was bumped by a slitting rival approaching the sixteenth pole, and was outfinished by that foe in the late stages. SOVIET was off slowly, saved ground far off of the pace, shifted to the three path turning for home before shifting to the five path at the furlong pole, then rallied willingly for show. JOYFUL SURPRISE set the pace inside a pair of rivals, dug in to hold an advantage from them turning for home, shifted a path outwards in midstretch narrowing the gap between him and his outer vying counterpart, but exchanged bumps under left handed pressure when the eventual winner made a splitting bid approaching the sixteenth pole, then yielded and was nailed on the wire for show. KOWALSKI prompted the pace three wide around the turn, bid for the lead at the quarter pole, but was repelled by inner foes at the three sixteenths pole, and weakened in the late stages. HUG THE MUNNY pressed the pace along the inside early on, took back to stalk into the turn, saved ground around the bend, but failed to produce a bid through the lane. AUTOPILOT tracked from midpack three wide in the four path around the turn, but weakened around the turn. OCEANIC was off slowly and trailed early on, took the turn in the five path, and never got involved. JESS MO raced off the pace along the inside, but was done early.
