HUNTIN'THEHOLIDAYS saved ground off the early pace, started a bid toward the quarter pole, improved in the six path of the far turn, finished well to take third later yards and was gaining on the top two. GIO DUDE saved ground the first turn then started a bid toward the three eighths pole, raced two deep on the far turn, was carried out entering the stretch, lost momentum off the heels of No More Talk mid-stretch then flattened out later yards. DIONYSUS' CHALICE raced with the pace off the rail and took the lead past the seven sixteenths pole, but, gave up the nod toward the five sixteenths, dropped back midway on the far turn, drifted a bit into the lane then weakened. FLORIDA BOYS saved ground the first turn and showed little response through the backstretch. NEW WINDSOR took over at the rail into the first turn, was caught passing the seven sixteenths pole, gave chase from that point then faded into the far turn.
