CROSSTOWN SHOOTOUT tracked to the turn, ranged up outside to challenge the winner at the quarter pole, couldn't keep pace but chased hard under a drive, settling for place. ROYAL BLUE BOY was hustled away from the gate, dueled from the rail, dropped out on the turn and re-rallied down the stretch while no threat to the top two in the end. YOU GO BOY broke in and bumped a foe, was bounced between horses, chased inside, lacked room on the rail nearing the turn, and lacked a rally shortly after that.

Footnotes

FOREVER DIAMOND cleared the field on the first turn, led off the rail, responded when headed in upper stretch, and just lasted in a photo finish. TANCAHUA tracked the leader while alongside a stable mate, took on the front runner in upper stretch, was gaining steadily late, but just missed at the wire. ONE CRAZY RIDE was well placed inside behind the pace, lost touch with the top two runners on the turn, was no match for them but a clear third and ridden out in the final furlong. FLINT CORN settled in the five path behind the pace, came widest into the stretch and evened out while improving position. KALYDAR was bounced between horses at the start and ran evenly. ESTRELLA DE DANE was in hand to the turn but had no rally in the stretch.
