Footnotes

WELSHMAN was allowed to settle for the first circuit, made a middle move on the backstretch of the second circuit, took over on the turn and drew off to prove much the best, driving. MR. BRIDGER set the early pace while clear, then was headed by the winner and could not go with that rival while being clearly second best. MOLLY FANTASY (GER) was allowed to settle early, steadied when rival went bad and had to leave the course on the second circuit, made a mild bid on the turn but was no match to the top two while besting the rest. QUEENS EMPIRE (IRE) chased the early pace and made a mild middle move and weakened. YANKEE DOODLE BOY lacked a solid rally. TELEGRAM chased the pace on the first circuit and tired. LEAR AVIA was reserved early, then improved on the second circuit and lost the rider in the lane. TWENTY YEARS ON (GB) pulled up after the sixth fence and was vanned off.
