FAR MO POWER pursued the loose pacesetter, collared that rival in midstretch and pulled clear through the final furlong. IRISH CORK controlled the pace, lost the advantage passing the eighth pole but continued willingly. DOUBLE CROWN bid closer outside after half a mile then was up for the show late. ELOQUIST saved ground within striking range then flattened out in the stretch. KING OF DREAMS chased outside off the leaders, was eased after the finish and vanned off afterward. AMATTEROETIME broke a bit awkwardly, raced wide and trailed most of the trip.
