DOUBLE NICKEL tracked off the early pace, bid three wide around the turn, could not switch leads through the lane, and ground out the place. MITHRIDATES pressed the pace from the two path, asked around the turn, flattened out to the wire. PORTIS off to a slow start, under a drive and three wide into the turn, had no late response. LILENGTHATCOULD slow into stride, asked to quicken leaving the three eighths marker, came up empty. DENISTON chased inside into the turn, lost ground leaving the three eights pole, and never threatened. EGOR OTAY sent soon after the start, vied along the inside into the turn, under outside pressure around the turn, gave way from the quarter pole.
