Footnotes

PERFECT CRIME was off the pace before rallying up the inside on the turn, came out to pass a tiring foe at the quarter pole, had dead aim on the leader at the sixteenth marker and got by that one in the shadow of the wire. LENNY K stalked the early leader from mid backstretch around the turn, bid for the front turning for home and had a clear advantage by midstretch, only to be run down late. OCELOT won a scramble for the early lead, was stalked and collared by the eventual place finisher by upper stretch, holding on for the show spot but no match for the top pair. TRAGICALLY QUEWICK was between rivals in the early mix for the front before taking back to stalk outside, stayed in midpack through the turn and ran evenly down the stretch, no threat to the top three. BEYOND BORDERS off the pace in the early going, rallied into mid pack and was outside the winner in mid turn but seemed to bear out, giving the rider trouble down the lane while lugging in and on one line. SPITE STORE moved up to chase the two pacesetters along the inside late backstretch and around the turn, was still involved in upper stretch but retreated in the final sixteenth. ARBEIT settled in near the rear and along the inside, never getting into contention. LUMBERJACK was in the hunt for the early lead three wide between, began to drop back into the turn and continued to retreat. PAPERBACK HERO chased wide for a sixteenth, falling back before the turn and trailing.
