Footnotes

BELLSWILLBERINGING went to the lead around the first turn, skillfully handled down the backside, was collard leaving the quarter pole, found that extra gear along the inside, fought on gamely late for the victory. ANOTHER FLIRT track wide around the first turn, nice outside stalking position down the backside, loomed a danger to leader leaving the quarter pole, could not quite pass leader in deep stretch, clearly second on this day. HUMMIN' THE FUNK off the pace and ground saving trip, when called on rounding second turn, raced inside weary foes, willingly held the show spot. TINAS SHINING STAR raced well off the pace, stayed off the pace and along the inside, came under a steady drive nearing the quarter pole, shifted out by faders, even strides through the wire. YOURINDENIAL tracked the leader around the first turn, raced between runners down the backside, called on far turn, weakened through the stretch. MAY BEAU slow into stride, raced four wide first turn, asked for run second turn, outrun through the stretch. C'EST PARTI broke a step slow, raced off the pace backside, outrun stretch.

Footnotes

SUPERSTITIEUX always a dangerous threat, tracked the pace setter from the two path, queued up when nearing the quarter pole, quickly took command, easy sailing under a nice hand ride. SIR PEEL tracked the leaders from a nice three wide position, sent into the fray nearing the quarter pole, steady drive through the lane clearly second best today. NAVAL OFFICER coaxed from the opening bell, nice clear lead along the inside, was collard from the outside leaving the quarter pole, could not match strides with top pair, gave a good effort through the wire. CHERRYYS CROSS off to a slow start, called on for run around the turn, came up empty stretch. RUBY ROAD slow into stride, pressed along for speed into turn, never a threat.
