MISTER MIDAS saved ground stalking the pace, steadied nearing the quarter pole briefly when Parker's Gold fell, responded when clear and finished well for the place from along the inside. IT'S TURBO dropped back early, checked nearing the quarter pole trying to avoid the fallen horses and finished willingly when clear. GUNNIN FOR GOLD sprinted clear at once, saved ground setting the pace to the stretch and tired. NASHVILLE SKYLINE lacked early speed, checked nearing the quarter pole and failed to threaten. SECRET SAGA raced three-wide on the turn, attempted to jump over his fallen rival and unseated his rider and was walked off. PARKER'S GOLD moved up between to force the pace on the turn, appeared to take a bad step and fell nearing the quarter pole and was vanned off. The stewards conducted an inquiry into the running of the race, but after viewing the films, made no changed in the order of finish.

DYF was never far back, moved up four-wide to join the leaders, dueled with Jersey Red for the final three-sixteenths and prevailed in a stiff drive. JERSEY RED stalked the pace racing in hand, moved up inside of Dyf on the turn, dueled with him from that point point and lost a tough decision in a game effort. MISO FAST saved ground while being allowed to settle in stride, angled out for room entering the stretch and finished in a mild rally. TUMAC MOUNTAIN stumbled at the start, then moved up between horses to prompt the early pace and weakened. TRIBAL IMPACT raced two-wide on the turn and lacked a rally. BLUE BOY WHO saved ground setting the pressured pace to near the stretch and tired.
