Footnotes

ABDAA moved up steadily outside, moved in slightly to split rivals near stretch, was steered out through stretch and won going away. LOADED JOE saved ground, was steadied briefly near the quarter pole, moved out in mid stretch and gained place. JAMA DILLON saved ground just off the pace, moved out and took the lead near mid stretch then gave way grudgingly. GAUCHO set the pace just off the rail and held on well. JOE THE BOSS raced just off the rail and failed to menace. EPIGRAMMATIST, three wide and just off the pace, tired. SPIDER BITE failed to be a serious threat. GOSLEY saved ground, ducked in at the gap in the stretch, was straightened and failed to menace. LEYENDA AZTECA showed nothing. SOMETHING PENTO was never a threat. A claim of foul by the rider of LOADED JOE against ABDAA for alleged interference near the quarter pole was quickly dismissed.

ATLANTIC AVENUE saved ground throughout, bid to the front near the quarter pole and drew away under moderate urging. CREEDIBILITY lacked speed, angled out to secure room in the stretch and offered a late surge. BAYLEAF dueled outside and continued willingly just missing the place. IRON LILLY chased off the pace outside and raced evenly through the stretch. ZONING hustled to the front near the inside, proved empty in the stretch. REIGNING FIRE chased wide and was never in contention. MORISSETTE dueled wide early then began retreating on the turn. NOT IN THE MOOD dropped back at the start and was always outrun.
