BLUEFIELD chased the pace outside INSPIRED GEM, overtook that one near the quarter pole then drew out under brisk urging. POSITIVE FORCE hugged the inner rail on the turn, angled to the three path approaching the stretch and rallied. INSPIRED GEM sprinted to the early lead, hugged the inner rail around the turn and steadily retreated through the stretch. GLORIOUSLY , four deep on the turn, steadily dropped back through the stretch. RIVER TRAPPE stumbled badly leaving the starting gate, saved ground on the turn, eased out for the drive and was not a factor. YIRA chased the very early pace and was done before reaching the turn.

Footnotes

BELFOUR vied three deep around the first turn, emerged in a tussle with OLDFASHIONED CLUB leaving the five eighths, spurted away into the far turn, dropped in some and dictated, came under some coaxing into the lane, kept on under a drive past the furlong grounds then held firm while allowed to coast the final yards. MIDNIGHT ACT sparred between runners through the opening five sixteenths, rated back and stalked past the five eighths, came under pressure while chasing outside a rival leaving the three eighths, came back on with good energy in the final furlong and out kicked GENERAL PADDY for the place. GENERAL PADDY chased outside a rival, angled further out after six furlongs, circled four wide under pressure into the lane, advanced outside MIDNIGHT ACT inside the sixteenth marker but hung late. BOBBY G saved ground pursuing the leaders, was under a solid ride around the final turn, eased out entering the lane but lacked a bid. OLDFASHIONED CLUB dueled inside a pair of foes through the opening quarter mile, battled with the winner past the five eighths, failed to match strides heading to the far turn, gave willing chase to about the quarter pole then wilted.

EXTREMELYEXCLUSIVE bobbled at the break, recovered and took to rating while in range of a contested early pace, edged up between foes while confidently ridden past the three eighths, bid three deep to engage the leaders with a quarter to go, was nudged clear in upper stretch and widened in handy fashion. MORE TWIRL settled well back, came under pressure mid turn, angled out in the drive and churned on while on his left lead and gained the place in the final yards. I'D LIKE TO KNOW prompted outside the leader, dueled around the turn, raced between runners into the lane, failed to keep pace past mid stretch and faded. MALIBU HEAVEN saved ground in range, awaited some room mid turn, altered out for room entering the lane but failed to kick on. MAN UP DUDE , three deep chasing the pace, weakened. RUNAWAY STAR grabbed command early towards the inside, set a pressured pace, dueled mid turn to the head of the lane then weakened.
