Footnotes

THENAME OF THEGAME raced from off of the pace, was given time to find his stride, raced four wide, shifted to the inside into the three path passing rivals through the turn after launching a bid at the three eighths pole, was asked for more in the upper stretch, responded well, dropping onto the rail, gained ground, was encouraged through a hole on the rail near the sixteenth pole, was guided through and popped out on the lead, was kept on point and continued to pull ahead for the win. BAD HENRY was racing in the middle of the field in the two path, was surrounded and racing in between foes nearing the three eighths pole, launched a bid and gained ground, improving position through the turn, challenged for the lead in the upper stretch, angled out into the three path, went stride for stride with the early leader down the stretch, was collared by a fast closing inside rival just getting beat and finishing second. DUKE OF DOOLY broke sharp, happily took control setting the pace for the majority of the fractions, was joined by a challenging rival in the upper stretch, battled with this rival down the stretch, racing stride for stride, was passed up by an inside avenger, lost momentum finishing with a third after doing all of the early work. SIDNEY'S BID was off mid pack, raced in the four path while traveling on the outside of another competitor, raced down the backside with this one, launched a bid at the half mile pole, circling the field through the turn, then had no late kick. BAD HOMBRE stalked from the two path but made no significant impact. SETTE STELLE raced off of the pace, traveled in the three path and showed little. SOMETIMES I DO vied for the lead from the four path, stalked the leader, raced in between foes then flattened out in the stretch.

MAT MATTERS raced in the three path, led by half a length with horses closely stalking to either side, launched a bid a the three eighths pole, and improved position putting more ground in between himself and his stalking rivals, was asked at the top of the lane and responded well drawing off and winning convincingly. CARRY GRANT had an awkward start, was off slow, settled, trailed, bid at the half, circled rivals through the turn, travelled four wide, shifted out into the six path in the upper stretch, found his best stride late, was gaining ground and closing in on the eventual winner but could not get there today and finished a nice second.. JOHNNY FROM BOSTON stalked the leader from the four path, launched a bid at the three eighths pole, could not gain any ground on the leader, chased but did not have enough. TOADY HOPPER raced from off of the pace in the four path, moved at the half mile marker, slightly gained ground and improved position but had no finish and faded in the stretch. SOUTHERN PASS TIME stalked from the two path, saved ground and gave way. CAPITAN GEORGE was unsettled in the gates, raced mid pack, showed little.

NOMORETANLINES vied for the lead, then stalked the early leader while racing in the four path, was encouraged into the upper stretch, stayed with the early leader as they pulled away from the rest of the field, was driven every stride, pushed to gain ground and get closer to the leader, finally was able to draw next to and then go past the early leader in the last sixteenth of a mile with determination as she held sway for the win. READY TO ROCKNROLL vied for the lead, raced in the two path, set the pace, was collared in the last sixteenth of a mile finishing second. HOLD ON broke a step slow, raced off the pace into the turn, bid between runners leaving the three eighths marker, was stopped cold in traffic nearing the quarter pole, regrouped while shifting out five wide in upper stretch, and rallied with good energy to the wire. BACKSEAT ROMANCE was off mid pack, fell back a bit and raced off of the pace, traveled four wide, moved at the three eighths, gained ground, improved position in the upper stretch, ran a bit green bumping into another competitor in the stretch run, struggled for forward momentum finishing a dull fourth. VIVY was off mid pack, raced four wide,, improved slightly in the upper stretch then finished evenly. SANDY GIRL stalked the early pace from the five path, launched a bid near the quarter pole and faltered. A SHAWTOWN GIRL was off a touch slow, saved ground through out racing on the rail, was asked at the quarter pole and responded well closing late but it was not enough today. NOHAI broke mid pack, steadied two times into the turn, bumped hard and clipped heels nearing the furlong marker, had nothing left after a brutal trip. RISK AND REGRET was off a bit slow, trailed early, raced four wide and showed little. MARIA MOON was forwardly placed, stalked three wide, then tired.

HOYA raced in the two path, was off in the middle of the field, then gave way. SHIP MASTER raced off of the pace, was three wide, moved at the half mile pole, gained ground, circled the field through the turn, but did not have enough for the stretch drive.
