AFY KID broke a bit awkwardly, trailed in the five path rounding the first turn, cruised up four wide around the far turn, seized command nearing the five-sixteenths pole, continued on the left lead in the lane and drew off while ridden out. NOBLE AND KIND disputed the pace two wide, could not keep pace with the winner nearing the five-sixteenths, continued on the left lead in the lane and lasted for the place. RAGMAN raced off the pace four wide between foes around the first turn, went five wide around the far turn and was along for the show. MATEO was reluctant to load, tracked the pace two and three wide, bumped with HEART BOY in upper stretch and lacked the needed rally. HEART BOY raced off the pace six wide around the first turn, moved up a bit four wide around the far turn, bumped with MATEO in upper stretch and lacked any further bids. FLORIDA STAR was in range while racing three and four wide and came up empty in the lane. ST ANDRES was fractious behind the gate, raced three wide and never threatened. FAST LIVIN stalked the pace three wide and retreated through the lane. IMDABESTINTHEWORLD vied inside and stopped around the far turn.

NIC'S BRO stalked from the two path, was coaxed from the four path into the lane, took a narrow lead passing the eighth pole, and held on gamely. REGIMENTAL COMMAND dueled from two wide, was cued from the four path into the lane, but finished evenly. CLEVER ENOUGH rated in the four path, fanned out to the nine path into the stretch, but was one paced. ROYAL QUALITY tracked in the path, bid form four wide into the lane, but weakened.
