KING LOMAX tracked inside behind the pace, took the five path on the turn and gamely chased the winner down the stretch, though settling for place. FREEDOM MIKE was the early speed inside, vied with a foe down the stretch and gave way in the final furlong. FIGHTIN WITH PRIDE was never close, widest in the stretch and improved position late. VOLUME ON TAP chased closer early, then further back and needed more in the stretch. FOLLOW THE MAGIC was unruly behind the gate, veered in at the start, saved ground on the turn from well back, and was not a threat.

SACRED STORM showed speed inside, drifted out racing onto the main track, angled back inside off the rail, was game at the rail in the stretch but flattened out at the eighth pole. Footnotes
SOUTHERN HUMOR raced alongside the early leader in hand, readily took over entering the turn, led clear by mid turn and widened from there under some urging. KING BING HAWK was urged from the gate, waited, rallied on the turn, gained second but was no match for the winner. C C THE BOSS moved up from the back on the turn, angled in down the stretch and had a mild rally for show. KAWA was hustled away from the gate, raced just behind the pacesetters, followed the winner on the turn, could not keep pace and weakened down the stretch. GO UNCLE JOEZ GO was early speed on the inside, dropped back on the turn and drifted out in the stretch while fading. BIG BAD SHACK was wide on the backstretch, quickened on the turn in the four path, and faltered in upper stretch.
