AGITARE (IRE) settled toward the back of the field early, ran evenly, bid before the final hurdle to gain position going into the stretch, but was unable to gain further on the leaders. EYE OF GUNFIGHTER assumed the lead after the first half mile to set the pace through the 8th hurdle, relinquished the lead at the second to last hurdle, and faded before the last hurdle. WICKED WEST (IRE) ran evenly at the back of the field through 7 hurdles, passed tiring rivals 3/8 from home, and was no threat. VINCENT VAN GOGO maintained position in the middle of the pack, fell at the 2nd to last hurdle and walked off. UNION GEN. GEORGE rated early, fell on the 4th hurdle, and walked off. The rider of WICKED WEST (IRE) lodged a claim of foul against the field. The field was waved around the 9th hurdle on the second circuit due to the previous fall of UNION GEN. GEORGE, and the rider claiming foul alleged that the rest of the field had gone off course. The stewards conducted an inquiry, and following the review, determined that all horses and riders made their best effort to safely return to the course. The claim of foul was disallowed and there was no change to the order of finish.
