STOSH bumped with D'ARCHER just after the break, chased from outside on the backstretch, advanced three wide nearing the end of a half mile and gradually edged ahead for second the final sixteenth. ROLL CALL prompted the pace just outside the leader, was no match for that one when set down for the drive and slowly wore down the last sixteenth. KAPCORI ROAD bumped with D'ARCHER at the start then was bumped hard by the latter and forced inward, was checked off ROLL CALL'S heels, soon well back and showed little.

Footnotes

AROSE FOR LYLA hesitated at the start, spotting the rest of the field more than a length, advanced in close quarters between rivals to gain the lead before finishing two furlongs, was kept in hand from along the rail on the bend, put to a drive upper stretch, lengthened command and was kept to task until the last seventy yards. CREAL DREAMER prominent between horses, moved clear for second just off the inside on the turn, fanned out some for the stretch run, was all out under steady urging, could not close the gap on the leader but proved easily best of the others. PECOS AUTUMN well placed along the rail, retreated into the bend, saved ground taking the turn then could only pull away for third through the lane. SHINE DOWN pressed from outside, began to yield widest on the turn and continued to fade in the stretch.
