ENTRY TO HEAVEN was a tad slow off the mark, quickly recovered to move up three wide into a stalking position into the turn, stayed three wide to loom up as they turned for home, fell back in upper stretch but came again in the final sixteenth, driving past the leader in the final strides. AIM FOR THE SKY led quickly, kept a length or so advantage around the turn, opened a bigger lead down the stretch but failed to hold off the winner's charge, a solid second best. READY SOUL broke out at the start but quickly recovered to track the leader inside, awaiting room throughout but a clear path never appeared, seemingly having run but not being able to use it, holding the show when the top two separated themselves nearing the wire. CHECKERBOARD FLOOR stalked his stablemate throughout, stayed in contention in between rivals down the stretch, jumping on and off his wrong lead while battling on for a minor award. SHENNAN (IRE) settled in midpack, was on hold behind rivals before swinging out two to five wide late turn, came into the six path turning for home and looked set for a run but hung in the final seventy yards. BATTLE OF YORKTOWN was off the pace, roused by his rider around the turn, angled out in upper stretch in behind runners and shifted out again by the sixteenth pole but by then the race was over, never getting his chance to kick it in. THY KINGDOM was crowded by a rival to his inside at the start and fell off the pace, trailed the field midway on the turn and passed a outfinished a couple late, never a threat. MACADE was off the pace and two to three wide on the turn, never reaching contention in the stretch. MORE CHANCES trailed the field early before advancing three to six wide on the turn, was in the eight path turning for home but tired and dropped back down the lane.
