GOLDEN JUAN clean start from the outside post, tracked the leader into the turn, sent to the attack nearing the quarter pole, checked between runners in deep stretch, finished even through the wire. QUICK TEMPO raced just off the early pace, saved ground around the turn, could not stay with outside foes, no late gain. CAERUS slow into stride, never a threat. MURUMBI raced off the early pace, moved up between runners into the turn, under a constant ride, moved up nearing the quarter pole, shifted inside nearing the furlong marker, tried through the wire. PRACTICALLY THERE tracked the leaders early, nice three wide move around the turn, could not keep pace with top flight finished even late. AKEMI always in range of the leader, moved up nearing the quarter pole, shifted outside for clear run, faded through the stretch.
