Footnotes

THEDA'S BOY started slow and allowed a trio of horses to dictate the pace for approximately two miles. With three quarters to run he was put under urging picking off rivals to take command. One late effort from OLD STYLE HUMOR fell flat. OLD STYLE HUMOR (IRE) ran the most even race of the field. Sitting behind pacesetter POST WAR, he allowed him to control the early going. Made a move with three quarters left and was greeted by the winner alongside who captured the lead. Made one last effort which didn't materialize. GLENCORRIB SKY (IRE) started the early going behind them all and edged closer over time; made its move to join top two but was no match. DE GREY GUY (IRE) began in the middle of the pack and stayed there throughout. Attempt to gain shot; failed late. PRIDE OF ERIN (IRE) raced last at every point of call. POST WAR was the principal pacesetter from the get and enjoyed a clear lead and looked strong; With less than a mile to go, POST WAR unseated his rider over a fence. Walked off. ISLAND NATION (IRE) Pulled up midway through the contest; walked off.

HARD GAME took the early lead until challenged by ultimate winner. With about a mile left he contested that lead, and took over. Turning for home it was clear he was outmatched by winner. HEY TEACHER (GB) allowed the field to dictate terms and didn't catch one horse until late. Was never a factor. SOROLLA showed very little. DRUID'S ALTAR (IRE) began the race in the middle of foes then fell; walked off.

Footnotes
FASHION LINE sat behind HUYANA for the whole race until the last three quarters when asked to run gradually moved closer to the leader then took over that top spot. Once he had, they weren't going to catch him. HUYANA went straight to the front and led the way for most until midway through and winner was challenged by ELUSIVE EXCLUSIVE and the trio raced as a tandem for a furlong until he put him away. ELUSIVE EXCLUSIVE (IRE) made one move to the challengers and seemed in the mix, then stopped.
