SMOLTZ showed speed to the stretch and gave way at the sixteenth pole while on the rail. GOT THE NOTION was patient at the rear, went from off the rail on the turn and needed more rally in the stretch. IN A FOG was restrained early, lacked room and steadied going into the far turn, came into the stretch in the four path and flattened out. DUNWOODY chased the pace early, moved closer while on the rail in the turn, made a rail run down the stretch to make a late bid, angled out at the sixteenth pole but lacked the needed rally to catch the winner. MIRIANA'S QUEEN raced off the rail while off the pace and held positiion late. FOR HOME was bothered at the start, raced well off the pace, had some rally on the turn and improved position in the stretch. STREET QUEEN prompted the pace from the outside to the stretch and was out of gas at the eighth pole. BOO HAWK steadied a bit at the start and was no threat. The rider of DUNWOODY objected to alledged interference by GRACE D'ART in the stretch but the claim was disallowed by the stewards and the order of finish stood as is.
