Footnotes

INSURRECTION was bumped leaving the gate, settled, began to advance between horses early on the backstretch, raced three wide with the pace around the final turn while still in hand, engaged the leaders under whip into the final furlong and was narrowly best after a long drive. RANCHO BARGO was hustled early to the front, stayed close to the rail while urged to maintain his advantage then gave way grudgingly late. BUDDY ROCKET moved outside the early leader before a half, remained prominent between the top two through the final quarter but couldn't gain. CAIRO KING broke slowly, advanced inside early, was urged along into the far turn, edged out into the three path approaching the lane and lacked the needed closing. JAPEDO was unhurried early, raced the four path around the final turn and gained mildly in the lane. TROOPER was no factor. MULE SKINNER ducked out into the winner leaving the gate, angled to the inside soon after and failed to matter. PREFERRED PROSPECT raced the three path and tired. JETT RINK was outrun.

SCHOENHARDT was outrun three wide. SATURDAYNITESINNER was caught wide around the first turn while outrun. AIREDALE was finished early.
