MIO GRACELAND angled in to contest the pace and took a slim lead approaching the five sixteenths pole, dueled clear past the quarter and was steadily encouraged through the lane. THUNDERINREADYRICK chased off the rail then checked in tight approaching the quarter pole, eased to the four path through the turn, dueled for second mid-stretch and finished well. SO COURAGEOUS was hustled along about the three path while contesting the pace, had his heels clipped nearing the quarter pole, dropped back at the rail past the pole then flattened stride the final furlong. CATFISH settled off the earlier pace just off the rail then gave chase from the seven sixteenths pole, eased to the seven path to get around Champster on the turn but showed little further in the lane. SALTY J J chased, raced near the rail on the turn then flattened in the lane. WARRIOR'S ESTATE chased toward the outside and had his heels clipped while in the six path past the quarter pole, steadied at the heels of Juba Junior a furlong out and weakened. WEAVINTHEBLOCKS gave chase through the backstretch and rounded the turn widest. WILD RUN gave chase though never factored. CHAMPSTER chased through the backstretch, steadied from between horses nearing the quarter pole, clipped the heels of Warrior's Estate past the pole and nearly lost his rider, then showed nothing further. JUBA JUNIOR was hustled close in early chase, checked at the rail and clipped the heels of So Courageous nearing the quarter pole and lost his rider. After posting the inquiry, the Stewards disqualified So Courageous to last place for alleged interference nearing the quarter pole, which caused Juba Junior to clip heels and lose his rider.
