ASSIDUOUSLY (GB) was unhurried while along the inside, moved up on vacated rail through the turn to get near the leaders, was patiently ridden through late turn, tipped into the three path into the lane, quickly gained momentum while straightening, captured the lead soon after the eighth pole and drew away. BIG PAPER saved ground into mid-turn, angled sharply from the rail to the five path entering the lane, moved up to chase the winner and settled for second best. TIZ OF THEE chased the pace from the three path into the far turn, bid four wide through late turn, dropped closer to the inside into the lane, gained a short and brief lead outside the eighth pole, was no match for the winner but ended well clear for the show spot. GO NUTS saved ground through the turns and into the lane, shifted into the four path late and was never a threat. CONTRACTOR BILL chased the pace from the three path into the far turn, bid three wide after mid-turn, gained a short lead through late turn then gave way while straightening in the lane. SARGEANT BARGER was in the four to five path through the turns and into the lane and tired. BEAR FORCE set the pace early, was under pressure into the far turn, continued close up into the lane then was empty. MR. CUNNINGHAM pressed the pace two wide into the turn then was done near mid-turn.
