Footnotes
ARTEMUS CITYLIMITS galloped inside to the lead, pressured throughout, dug in gamely for a determined winner. LUCKY ASSET off a bit slow start and just missed trouble, secured good position to turn with an inside run, headed the winner with a furlong to go but was outfinished to the wire and gamely held the place spot. SCALE broke a bit tardy, trailed early on, made a nice midtrack move through the stretch run for the show spot and just missing the place. HARD TARGET broke well outside, vied to the turn three wide, could not go on and faltered late. QUEEN'S PALACE broke sharp outside, stayed in the mix four wide to the turn but emptied out. KITTEN'S MAN was bothered at the start when foe came over and never factored throughout. MEISTER'S BREW never a menace. KING SNAKE broke in sharply at the start, rushed to duel to the half but stopped readily. NO MAS was through early and dropped back.
