LEMON AGAIN raced towards the back of a tightly bunched field and always in contention, made a run on the final bend to get head and head for the lead heading to the last jump but could not gain further ground through the lane. VINCENT VAN GOGO settled mid pack but always in striking distance, rallied on the home turn to give himself a chance then flattened out but held on to the show spot. WESTERN CRUSADER raced towards the back, picked off rivals going down the backside the final time to briefly gain the lead then was outrun from that point. LOVELY SUNSET took command at the start, held that position until the 3rd last fence then gave way. DUELLIST stalked the leader for the first mile and a half then faded.
