Footnotes

BALLYMORE STAR (IRE) forced the pace into the backstretch, moved closer and was a head off through the far turn, challenged at the top of the stretch and drew clear under a hand ride. SWILLING got away a bit slowly then stalked the pace, came three then two-wide on the far turn, launched a determined stretch drive was was just up for the place. LADY MOONSHINE was away a step slowly and settled off the pace, was hustled from the rail and two-wide on the far turn and was all out through the stretch. WHO SAYS hit the gate leaving then stalked the pace from the rail, angled three-wide on the far turn while chasing hard and finished gamely. BUTTERED TOAST was herded inward a bit leaving the gate, was three-wide on the first turn and hustled three and four-wide on the far turn, tipped out upper stretch and chased gamely. BEAT THE SYSTEM led quickly and set a pressured pace, was joined in earnest at the top of the stretch and was quickly headed and retreated without a chase.
