E R'S MIREYA vied for the lead, stalked from the five path, nearly took the lead in the furlong ground, inside rival passed on the rail, battled with a rival next to her for second, but just missed running third. TENSAS CLEAR raced from off of the pace, raced on the rail, launched a bid at the seven sixteenth pole, edged out into the four path, shifted into the eight path at the quarter pole, raced in the eight path down the stretch, closed willingly, but was not enough today. HOLIDAY FLOWERS vied for the lead, stalked the pace from the two path, raced in between foes, was pinched back a bit near the three eighths pole, then stopped by the quarter pole.
