Footnotes

A PRIMERA VISTA set a modest tempo around the first turn, controlled the lead into the far bend, felt pressure nearing the furlong marker, and fought on valiantly inside rival through the wire. ONE SILK STOCKING tracked the pace into the far turn, bid three wide entering the stretch, gained ground on the leader to the furlong marker, loomed a threat but hung in the final yards. KATIES A LADY stalked the pace from the two path, called on leaving the quarter pole, was out kicked to the wire. LADY ARSINOE raced well off the early pace, bid nearing the quarter pole, angled out in upper stretch, lugged in and flattened out late. SAL'S BLUE JACKET tracked from just off the pace down the backside, saved ground around the far turn, checked hard nearing the quarter pole, and finished evenly through the stretch. SPIKED ground saving trip, never a threat.
