Footnotes

FANCY CONCHO rated the pace inside, came under pressure leaving the three eighths pole and held the advantage nearest the rail on the far turn, dug in under a stout left hand stretch drive, drifted outward through the final sixteenth, though held on well. HYPOTHESIS stalked the pace off the rail then challenged toward the three eighths pole, raced close two deep on the far turn, dug in from the head of the lane but was carried out through the final sixteenth and steadied off the outside flank of Fancy Concho nearing the wire. CHIEF RANDEL stalked the pace three wide, bid nearing the three eighths pole and drifted to the six path on the far turn, closed the gap to late stretch then steadied off the outside flank of Hypothesis the final yards. STOWE ANGEL saved ground off the pace, bid leaving the seven sixteenths pole, rounded the far turn near the rail then flattened stride inside the sixteenth pole. CUBIC SOUND raced well off the pace about the four path the first turn and left the turn outside, gave chase leaving the seven sixteenths pole, rounded the far turn four wide and passed some rivals in the stretch. J J WEDGIT MAN saved ground off the pace, picked up the chase leaving the first turn, eased to the three path through the turn though showed little further. MYWALKTOFREEDOM rounded the opening turn in the three and four paths then raced outside into the backstretch, bid toward the seven sixteenths pole, came through the far turn still about the three path and showed little more. TAKE TIME steadied into the first turn and raced well back. OCASIONALY CLASSY showed little response through the backstretch, rounded the far turn at the rail, was eased in the stretch then unsaddled shortly after the wire and walked off appearing sore. After the Stewards reviewed a claim of foul, lodged by the rider of Hypothesis against the rider of Fancy Concho, as well as a claim of foul lodged by the rider of Chief Randel against the riders of both Fancy Concho and Hypothesis, the Stewards decided no change was necessary.
