CAMARADERIE chased the pace from the two path down the backstretch, was steadily gaining ground to gain the lead entering the stretch, was in a strong drive but was caught at the wire and was second best. JJ'S AMERICAN DIVA settled in the three path, then was urging throughout the turn to close well in the stretch but it wasn't enough. FROSTY BREW angled in towards the rail to set the pace down the backstretch, then was outbid by an outer rival on the turn, was used up and gave way in the stretch. HOP ON IN settled along the inside down the backstretch, then bid on the turn but did not respond in the stretch.
