ALWAYS A TIZ was away in good order took a clear lead early to avoid trouble and drew clear to win handily. SPELL WINDER was in tight quarters going up the backstretch and was forced to steady slightly raced well in the two path and was up for second. T. P. RIGHT LANE drifted in almost from the outset causing a chain reaction of bumping and horses that had to steady chased in the two path but after a stewards inquiry was disqualified and placed sixth for causing the incident up the backstretch. SENNEBEC SUMMER was forced to take up in the chain reaction bumping up the backstretch and seemed to get the worst of the bumping as she was forced down to the inside rail. TAYLOR'S BEAUTY also was severely impeded in the bumping incident and was forced to check and lost all chance. BLUEBIRD DAY was forced to steady along the inside up the backstretch and trailed. GARNETS GAL did not get a quick break and was pretty much clear of trouble raced wide and had nothing for the stretch run.

DABBLIN CHANNEL came through along the inside for second while never a real threat to the winner. FRANKI D ORO raced in the two path the entire trip but had no stretch rally. MISS RULES was well off the pace in the early stages began her move three wide on the turn but could not sustain the rally through the stretch. TREPI'S TRPL CROWN showed good early speed in the two path to engage for the lead held gamely to the top of the stretch and then gave way.
