TIZ HERSELF tracked the leader around the first turn, always a dangerous threat down the backside, went clear when asked leaving the three eighths pole, surveyed the competition nearing the quarter pole, roused clear once more in deep stretch. R TENDERONI raced wide around the first turn, took up an outside stalking position down the backside, moved to the attack from the three path far turn, clearly second best. PRINCESS ADIRA slow into stride, raced off the pace down the backside, moved up far turn racing between foes, very aggressive ride leaving the three eighths pole, gained the show placing. CHARITY STRIPE saved ground around the first turn, raced off the and along the inside down the back stretch, had not late kick. INEDATEQUILA set the early fractions, held the lead spot into far turn, came under outside pressure, and steadily faded through the lane. NOTION INTERRUPTUS lacked early speed, never threatened.
