BOO REID chased a three rival duel through mid-turn continued three wide into the lane when gaining momentum, caught the leader and took a short lead, looked to be a winner inside the eighth pole then faltered late. FINAL DELIVERY pressed the pace from between rivals through the turn, could not keep up with the top two but kept on to stay clear of the next rival at the wire. MACHO MADNESS was never a factor while in the two to the four path through the turn. COMMISSARIO was close early from the inside then steadily faded. SHOWSTOMPER was in the three path through the turn and into the lane, moved past another to get nearest the winner, was no match for that one and finished well clear of the next rival. XINGFU chased the winner from the two path through the turn, lacked a closing bid and settled for the distant third. HENRY'S GIRL was fractious in the gate, reared and unseated her rider prior to the start, chased the winner from the inside and through the turn then was empty entering the lane. TOLERATION was always last while near the inside.
